The Week: We are continuing to make progress in our multiplication chapter. Many of the children really seem to be catching on quickly, but please make sure they are practicing their facts at home, too! We will probably test either the end of next week, or the beginning of the following week. In Language Arts we continued learning the difference between topics and themes, as well as learned how to write good summaries for shorter stories. We also had our third literature circle meeting; it was really great to see the children working things out together and sharing what they love about their books!

Word of the Week: Moderation. The action of lessening in severity or intensity. We chose this word not only because Halloween is this weekend, but to teach the children to have moderation in all areas of life. Doing too much of anything can be bad for you. Please speak with your children about how they can moderate the intake of certain things in their lives this weekend.

Reminders:

- Conferences will be held on Thursday, November 12! Please be sure to sign up ASAP!
- Please make sure your children are properly completing their literature circle assignments. Each night your child should be reading and completing a vocabulary sheet with words he/she does not know.
- The flu mist will be given out on Thursday, November 5th.
- Please help our school raise money for the playground by donating/participating in our Walk-A-Thon (an orange sheet went home last week). Donations are due by Thursday, November 5th.
- There will be no school Friday, November 6th due to UF Homecoming.
- Picture retake day will be on Monday, November 7th.

Trivia Question: Answer the following question for 10 credits!!! Write your answer somewhere on this newsletter. Your parents may (and are encouraged) to help you.
“What is the official language of Costa Rica?”
