Classroom News

This week we will finish our Thanksgiving Unit. Students will take a reading comprehension test on what they learned on Monday. Students will be tested on the following vocabulary words: feast, gratitude, harvest, voyage, colonist, cornucopia, & chore. Students will also finish up their final writing about Thanksgiving and then their booklets will go home. They have worked very hard on their booklets.

Students did not finish up the middle of the year testing this week so we will continue on Monday and hopefully wrap it up.

We will start Chapter 4 in math on Tuesday. Chapter 4 is on subtraction strategies.

Don't forget, math facts fluency logs for November are due on Monday, December 3rd.

Volunteer Opportunity
If you would like to pull the workbook pages in math for Chapter 5, please let me know. It can be done anytime at school, but not on Parent Night as the kitchen is very busy. It takes about 1 hour. We will not start Chapter 5 until after Winter Break so it is not a huge hurry. Please e-mail me if you are interested.

My child is allowed/not allowed to write a friendly letter to Santa.
