Classroom News

Our Citizen of the Week is Nathanael Carver! It'll be announced Friday morning during Morning Meeting. Nathanael will have lunch with Ms. B!

I am SO proud of the class! They did an amazing job taking their tests this week and trying their best! I expect to finish the testing today (Friday, 5/10) & will not have to continue next week if all goes as planned. As soon as I get all the tests graded, I will send home their final scores. It should be sometime next week.

Please don't forget to take a few minutes to fill out the HLA parent survey you received via e-mail recently. Your feedback is always considered.

I will also be sending home a first grade parent survey soon. I look forward to hearing any thoughts, suggestions, and/or feedback in general to help better myself as a teacher as well as first grade curriculum.

Wacky Spirit Week

Wacky Spirit Week will be held the week of May 20th - 24th. Here is what each day looks like:

Monday: Wacky Tacky Day (dress your weirdest)

Tuesday: Backwards Day (wear your clothes backwards)

Wednesday: Dress Like Your Word Day (choose any word & dress like it)

Thursday: Team Spirit Day (favorite sports team)

Friday: Decade Day (50's, 60's, 70's, or 80's)

Also, HLA will hold their annual talent show on May 30th. If your child is interested, please let me know. He/she may do a solo, pair, or group performance. Only one performance per child.

Report Cards

The district has changed when grades are due this school year so report cards will not be sent home with your child on the last day of school. Your child's report card will be available at Mrs. Carr's desk after June 5th. You can also have it mailed if you wish.

Teacher Appreciation Week

HLA will celebrate Teacher Appreciation Week during the week of May 13th. To help raise funds to pay for the teacher appreciation luncheon, Mrs. Rousea is heading up a fun fundraiser. Each teacher that is participating has a container in the lobby where you can donate $1 for a ticket. You put the ticket in whichever teacher's container you wish. The top three teachers with the most tickets will get pied in the face. I'm sorry that I am not participating, it's just not my thing. Thank you for your support!
