Word of the Week:

Teamwork

Be sure your student has a water bottle daily.

Science Fair Progress

We should have turned in our Results and Conclusion Bibliography today. This is a list of your resources you used for information. Please be sure your student does this on Monday if it was not turned in today. Points will be deducted for late work if it is returned later than (after) Monday. Science Boards can be turned in ASAP. We are expecting all boards on March 7.

Important Dates to remember!

2/28/25-Field Trip to Dudley Farms!!

2/28/25-List of Resources

3/7/25-Bring in Science Board, ready to share!!

3/13/25-Cooking Club 3,4,5

3/17/25-3/21/25-Spring Break!!

Current Class Read Aloud:

We are listening to the read aloud The Lion's Paw by Robb White.

Science and Social Studies

We are currently studying the nature of matter (solids, liquids, gasses) in Science.

In Social Studies we are learning about the American Revolution. We heard about the four Intolerable Acts - where Britain levied laws against the colonies that were punitive in nature, and caused the colonies to band together, instead of turning to Britain in submission.

Art News

3-5 haven't finished the fjordscape yet, but have jumped ahead to creating abstract art using lines and color gradients as an element of design with oil pastel and liquid watercolor.
